

SAE University College Dubai Dress Code Policy

SAE University College Dubai, in accordance with the laws of the U.A.E., adheres to specific guidelines regarding appropriate attire. As a result, students are expected to dress properly while on campus. Inappropriate attire will not be tolerated, and violations are subject to disciplinary action.

Inappropriate attire is defined as, but not limited to:

- Tight and revealing clothing;
- See-through or translucent clothing;
- Short shorts and micro-skirts;
- Low-cut tops, dresses, and shorts that are shorter than knee length ;
- Sagging jeans or jeans with suggestive holes or markings;
- T-shirts with inappropriate logos or language; and
- Midriff-baring, open-back, or halter tops.

Procedure

If students, faculty, or staff determine that a student is in violation of the Dress Code Policy, they may report the information to the Student Services Team.

A four-step system is in place for dealing with students who violate the Dress Code Policy.

1. Students who are deemed to be in violation of the Dress Code will be reported immediately to the Student Services office.
2. The Director of HR and Operations or the Student Services staff will notify the student of the violation while reiterating the Dress Code Policy. Students may be required to leave campus at any time as deemed appropriate by the SAE Staff. Students will not be eligible to return to campus until he or she is wearing appropriate attire.
3. First-time violator's name(s), ID number, and date of violation will be entered into the student's academic records as a first official warning of breaching the policy.
4. Repeat violators will be subject to disciplinary action and will be presented to a Breach of Student Code of Conduct Hearing under the Student Code of Conduct policy.
